

Men's Group

Facilitated by Roy Woolfstead

The men's group centers around discussions and creating friendship among the male members of our community. We continue to examine topics brought by the men who attend. Our goal is to allow each man to become a better human being. Bring your issues. Bring your ideas (spiritual and other ideas), articles and poems. It is for the men in the circle to create a dynamic and safe space to explore who we are and what we want to become.
